Total vote in convention, 162 During the session of the credentials committee Messrs, Rogers, pointed delegates to said convention. Henegar and Mitter of the 5th district were allowed to have three votes from their district, and delegation from 2nd district represented by Green of that district.

On the presentation of the report of the oredentials committee | coated, pain continually in back and considerable argument was indulged whether the 5th district should be allowed 9 votes in the convention or only 8 as granted them by the committee on credentials, and it was moved by T. R. Harris to tim amend the report to allow the three voters present from the 5th to cast the entire nine votes of the district. J. C. Kelly objected to this on the ground that no election had been neld in the district. A division had been called for, but Mr. Harris withdrew his motion, and the district was allowed three votes.

Vote for Trustee was then called for, and the secretaries instructed to compute the ratio.

H E Tate, Jas. Bible and E Graenicher were appointed secretaries to receive vate for Sheriff, and compute the ratio.

After considerable figuring the result was announced as follows:

For Trustee: Thach, S4, Merritt, 38; Ladd, 40 Mr. Thach was dechired the nominee.

For Sheriff: McCullough, 66; Harris, 58; McNabb, 17; Ferguson, 12, seven votes being lost in the shuffle. No nomination was declared; and Messrs McNabb and Ferguson then withdrew their names. Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue sides, no appetite growing weaker every day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another vic-tim." No one should fall to try them.
